Clubby Armchair by Frag Srl

The Clubby Armchair is a stylish and versatile seating solution, perfect for both commercial and residential settings. Its compact proportions and wide range of upholstery options make it an ideal choice for shared spaces, particularly in the contract sector. The armchair offers a high level of customisation, with a padded shell that can be upholstered in either leather or fabric. You can choose a single-texture finish for a uniform look or opt for a combination of leather on the outside and fabric on the inside for a unique touch. For a more distinctive design, the armchair is also available with a braided leather shell, perfect for bespoke projects.

With its cylindrical shape, the Clubby Armchair boasts a modern, clean aesthetic, featuring soft padding and full upholstery in leather or fabric. The external shell is lightly padded and upholstered in leather, saddle leather, or cloth, adding to its luxurious appeal. The swivel base is made from sturdy metal with a brushed brass finish, providing both functionality and sophistication.

A matching pouf is available to complete the look, offering both comfort and style to any space.
